Speeding driver jailed for crash which killed friend

Transported to another era

This Basingstoke-built Thornycroft car was one of the stars at the Festival of Transport.

The 1909 vehicle was found derelict in a shed near Adelaide in Australia after being transported down under.

Painstakingly restored over an 11-year period, it was one of around 1,000 vehicles at the show in War Memorial Park at the weekend which attracted more than 25,000 visitors.

A DRIVER who "made a catalogue of reckless and irresponsible decisions" which killed his friend has been jailed.

Barry Smart was overtaking at more than 100mph and had alcohol in his system when he lost control of the car, causing the death of his passenger Kirsty Saunders.

Smart admitted causing death by dangerous driving and has been jailed for five years.

Winchester Crown Court heard how 37-year-old Smart was driving a dark blue BMW that he had taken without the owner's consent on the afternoon of June 24 last year.

He was driving it along the A30 towards Hook at Water End when he lost control of the car and it collided with a tree, critically injuring himself and Miss Saunders, from Brookvale, who was in the front passenger seat.

The 30-year-old was rushed to Southampton General Hospital but died three days later on June 27.

Smart, of Pemerton Road, Basingstoke, was taken to hospital in a critical condition.

Investigations by Hampshire Constabulary's serious collision investigation unit revealed Smart had consumed alcohol that would have been likely to have had an impact on his driving.

Speaking after the sentencing on Monday, PC Claire Miller said: "Once again we found ourselves investigating a fatal collision which was totally avoidable. Smart made a catalogue of reckless and irresponsible decisions that night which ultimately led to the death of his friend.

Barry Smart admitted causing death by dangerous driving in June last year

"Had he just stopped to realise how dangerous his actions were, then Kirsty would still be alive today and her family would not be forced to live on without her.

"Instead he has to live the rest of his life knowing that he is responsible for the death of his friend.

"I hope that this case acts as a warning to other motorists that these risks are not worth taking.

"The consequences can be fatal, as this collision has proven."

Smart was disqualified from driving for seven and a half years and received a 12-month sentence to run concurrently for driving without insurance.

X-ray service returned to normal after cyber attack

By Matthew Brown

RADIOLOGY services at Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital have returned to normal following the national cyber attack.

In a statement, Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust reassured people that "there was no data loss" but there was disruption to the x-ray service.

The trust added that it "will continue to do all we can to protect our systems for the future".

The statement confirmed radiology services had been affected by Friday's attack but they reopened on Tuesday.

An updated statement said: "The walk-in x-ray service is now open for patients referred by their GP across all sites and patients with an appointment should attend as planned."

It added: "Staff worked very hard over the weekend to minimise the impact on patients and as a result there have been few cancelled appointments."

The walk in x-ray machine in Basingstoke was closed on Monday and those who did need its services were directed to the Royal County Hospital in Winchester, Andover War Memorial Hospital or Alton Community Hospital.

Winchester and Andover have so far not been affected.

According to IT security firm Kaspersky, 61 NHS organisations in the UK were disrupted.

Dozens of public and private sector organisations in 150 countries across the world had their computers hit in a "ransomware" attack.

A virus took over files and $300 (£230) payments were demanded to restore access to them.

Commendation for dedicated nurse

A HEALTHCARE assistant who helps cancer patients prepare for major surgery has been highly commended at the Nurse Awards 2017.

Elaine Cooney, who works in the critical care department at Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital, was nominated by a colleague for her hard work in helping patients know what to expect during their treatment.

The 56-year-old regularly gives up her own time to help patients suffering from pseudomyxoma peritonei, a rare form of cancer that requires a major operation.

She has also helped to redecorate the relatives' room in the intensive care unit to make it a more comfortable place for families to be.

Elaine said: "Helping to prepare patients for their time on the intensive care unit ahead of their operations is something that is really important to me.

"It's a big, long operation and the thought of going into intensive care can be frightening. By showing them around, hopefully I can take that daunting element away."

Elaine picked up her commendation at the Royal College of Nursing's Nurse Awards 2017, held in London earlier this month.

She added: "It was an amazing night and I had a great time. It was an honour to be there and I could not believe it when I heard them say that I was highly commended, I was very pleased."

Odiham Cricket Club hit for £2,000 after break-in at their clubhouse

ODIHAM cricket club has been left counting the cost after thieves struck the clubhouse.

The club estimates the robbery has cost them over £2,000.

Cash and stock, including spirits, were taken from the King Street club after the burglars broke in and took the keys to a store cupboard.

"It's incredibly disappointing," said Bruce Applin, the club's chairman of bar, house and events.

"We cater for a large section of the community, including 250 kids that play here but it's business as usual. We won't allow people to hinder what we're trying to do and things will carry on as normal."

The intruders also caused damage to a door and a kitchen window was smashed during the theft which took place between the late evening of May 9 and early hours of May 10.

The cricket club claims to be one of the oldest clubs in the world after being formed in 1764 and celebrated their 350th anniversary in 2014.

CCG reveals £1.7m overspend

NORTH HAMPSHIRE: The local NHS clinical care commissioning group (CCG) revealed it ended the financial year 2016/2017 £1.7m in deficit.

Pam Hobbs, chief financial officer at the North Hampshire CCG, gave the update at the most recent governing body meeting.

According to an update on the CCG website, "there were significant overspends" on the Hampshire Hospitals NHS foundation trust contract and healthcare for individuals who are not in hospital but have health needs.

The four hour A&E wait target was met in March and the number of delayed transfers of care went down.

Five of eight cancer waiting time standards were met, meaning the CCG is just off target for this.

Tories welcome independent to help deliver better service

By Matthew Brown

A 'COMPASSIONATE conservative' borough councillor has re-joined the Conservative Party, citing her support for Prime Minister Theresa May and MP Maria Miller.

Cllr Onnalee Cubitt, who represents Old Basing and Lychpit on the borough council, gave up her independent status to re-join the Tories.

"I'm delighted to have been warmly welcomed back into the Conservative Group," Cllr Cubitt said. "I have always been a compassionate conservative and I am a big supporter of both Theresa May and our wonderful MP Maria Miller.

"I am excited about the group's plans for Basingstoke and believe voting Conservative is best for Basingstoke and essential for our country at this time," she added.

Cllr Cubitt was elected as a Conservative councillor in 2008 but left the group in 2012 in a dispute over Manydown.

She was re-elected in 2014 as an independent candidate.

With borough council elections taking place in May next year, Cllr Cubitt denied this was behind her re-joining the Tories, saying "if I were to stand as an independent next year, I believe I would probably do better than if I stood as a Conservative because I'd have a wider base".

Simon Bound, leader of the borough council's Conservative group, said: "Cllr Cubitt is an extremely talented local councillor and I look forward to working closely with her delivering better services for both the community of Basing and the borough as a whole."

The Conservative group voted "overwhelmingly" to support Cllr Cubitt joining. They now hold 33 of 60 seats on the borough council.

Solicitors hoping to make the £50k mark for Ark

Staff from Clarke & Son present the cheque for last year's funding to Ark trustee Merv Rees

A FIRM of solicitors has set its sights on raising £50,000 for the Ark Cancer Centre Charity.

This will be the third year Clarke & Son Solicitors, in Winchester Road, have fundraised for the charity, having collected just over £18,000 for them in 2016/17.

The charity was set up in 2015 and is looking to raise £5million to build a new cancer treatment centre in Basingstoke and Deane.

Marketing manager Darren Lovegrove said: "We achieved an amazing result in 2016/17, and now we have set our sights on raising even more this year as we aim to hit a £50,000 target over the three years that we have been supporting the charity."

Ark trustee Merv Rees said: "The support from the Clarke & Son team has been absolutely amazing.

"To have their backing for a third consecutive year is an honour, and a significant show of support."

Brenda shares her story and clothes to highlight condition

By Adam Flinn

A BASINGSTOKE woman who was diagnosed with Crohn's disease five years ago has been sharing her story to raise awareness of the condition.

Brenda Meakin, 68, was told she had the condition when she was in her early 60s – most people normally receive a diagnosis before they turn 30.

After being frustrated by doctors, Brenda turned to charity Crohn's and Colitis UK for help.

"I felt very confused on diagnosis, my GP told me it must be a mistake as I was too old for a new diagnosis and no-one really offered me any information," said Brenda.

"For the first year I was under a locum consultant who refused to really do or tell me anything, so all my knowledge and understanding of my illness came from Crohn's and Colitis UK.

"At present, I am in remission but at my worst times in 2014/15 I was so poorly and all medications made things worse.

"My days consisted of getting out of bed, moving to the settee and the toilet all day and then back to bed. I was too weak to get in and out of the bath or go out."

Crohn's is a form of inflammatory bowel disease, with a recent survey by Crohn's and Colitis UK finding that 78 per cent of patients believe the public has a limited understanding of the condition.

Brenda Meakin set up a Facebook page for sufferers to share clothes with each other

Brenda had to retire from her job as a dental practice manager because of the disease, and said the illness had an impact on keeping in contact with friends.

But five years on from her diagnosis, Brenda has now set up a Facebook page where sufferers share photos of clothes that no longer fit them as a result of Crohn's and send them out to other members.

She continued: "Now that I'm feeling well, I've created a Facebook page where IBD sufferers offer clothes to other members for just the cost of postage.

"It's very successful at the moment and it's lovely that people post photos of themselves in their new clothes.

"For my part, I finally feel useful and have some purpose again because of the group."

Sandwich poster proves a winner

A SILCHESTER Primary School pupil has won a competition to help redesign a van used by bakery firm Warburton's school visitor programme.

Eight-year-old Kiera Thompson designed a poster featuring a healthy sandwich, which has now been reproduced on the side of the van.

Her design was picked from over 25 entries submitted by year 3 pupils at the school.

Alex Aitken, school visitor based at Warburton's Basingstoke site, said: "Our school visitor workshops are all about teaching children about the importance of a healthy and balanced diet.

"Getting the pupils involved in this competition provided another way to help them engage with healthy eating and the role which bread can play in their diet.

"We look forward to visiting Silchester Primary again in the near future."

School 'excellent'

HOOK: A private school has been rated as 'excellent' following an inspection from the Independent School Inspectorate (ISI).

Inspectors praised Sherfield School, near Hook, for the quality of pupil's personal development, noting that students "achieve high standards across all areas of the curriculum".

Sherfield's headteacher Nick Fisher said: "The ISI's report is testament to the hard work of Sherfield's wonderful staff and the enthusiasm of its creative pupils – a clear reflection of this thriving school."

'Not our guide'

ALTON: An unofficial guidebook is doing the rounds in Alton, prompting the town council to emphasise it is not something they have authorised.

Residents have been contacting the council with concerns about the Alton Town and District Guide 2017-18, in particular over the food and drink section.

An e-fit of the man police want to speak to

E-fit released of roadside flasher

A DOG walker spotted a man indecently exposing himself in Baughurst.

He was sitting by the side of Inhurst Lane whilst flashing and the 47-year old woman reported it to police.

Officers attended the place where the man was seen but he had already moved on.

The man is described as being aged around 25, of a very slim build and about 5ft 9ins tall.

Hampshire Constabulary have released an e-fit image of the man they would like to speak to in connection with the incident on May 5 at around 3.30pm.

Despite being a rural location, the area is popular with dog walkers and officers are keen to speak to anyone who may have seen something.

Anyone with information should call 101, quoting reference number 44170167834, or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

'Proud to follow mum as mayor of Amazingstoke'

By Matthew Brown

HISTORY has been made as Basingstoke's new mayor succeeds his mother.

Cllr Paul Frankum has replaced Cllr Jane Frankum as mayor of Basingstoke and Deane, believed to be the first time where the son has taken over from a mother as mayor in the UK.

Paul said: "I'm just proud because I'm following my mother which makes it extra special.

"It hasn't really sunk in, I haven't really got my foot in yet."

Born in 1970, the Basingstoke-bred mayor from Popley is looking to build on the work his mother carried out during her year in office by continuing to raise money for local groups and charities through the 'mayor's community chest'.

The cash will then go to local groups for voluntary projects in the community.

He added: "I had a unique opportunity to follow my mum, we wanted the same theme and charity, it's about 'everyone can' and to help get more volunteers.

"There are a lot of organisations out there that do similar things and are not aware of each other and we're going to start putting them into contact, my mother started that last year and we're hoping for progress on that."

Outgoing mayor Jane will become mayoress, accompanying her son to engagements as Paul did last year.

She described her year as mayor as "mindblowing", saying: "We did something like 460 meetings and events.

"I was expecting an amazing year but it far outstripped what I was expecting.

"Meeting the amount of volunteers and people that give up their time to help each other, and to help the community, to help the environment was just mind blowing.

"I always knew that Basingstoke was 'Amazingstoke' but I can now say after travelling the length and breadth of the borough it really is an absolutely amazing place... there's something for everyone."

On Paul following in her footsteps, his mum said she was "very proud".

Cllr Paul Frankum, the new mayor with his mum Jane, who he has taken over from and who will accompany him at engagements Picture: Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council

He is the third Basingstoke-born mayor since the 1960s and counts cricket, collecting whisky and ice hockey amongst his interests away from working in IT services.

85 homes set to be built despite traffic concerns

PLANS for 85 houses in Oakley look set to be given the go-ahead despite concerns over infrastructure.

Cllr Stuart Frost has highlighted the traffic issues and will be closely following the sewerage infrastructure for the proposed development on land west of Beech Tree Close in the village.

The land where the development is proposed also sits in a conservation area.

He said: "The residents of Beech Tree Close face having vehicles of 80-odd houses going there and back so they'll be considerable vehicle movements twice a day, and there is also a concern as well there could be speeding which could put residents at risk."

Cllr Frost said the developer, Gleeson Developments Limited, had proposed to connect directly to the nearest sewer "which could have lead to an over-flowing issue" however, he received "details of a submission where the actual connection point should be somewhere down Rectory Road which would alleviate the scenario".

"Myself and fellow councillors will be monitoring carefully to make sure all the caveats and agreements are met."

The plan was recommended to be approved at a borough council meeting last night.

In AWE of cash boost

A DROP-IN centre that provides support and assistance to homeless people has been given a £5,000 boost.

The Camrose Centre, in Church Square, was given the funds by the Atomic Weapons Establishment.

The centre is managed by charity Basingstoke Voluntary Action, and offers users advice on housing, employment and training, as well as a hot lunch.

BVA chief executive Stephen Morgan said: "AWE's generous donation to the Camrose Centre is absolutely fantastic.

"The donation will go a long way to provide essential services to people in the borough who are sleeping rough or are vulnerably housed.

"It will help secure the future of the Camrose Centre in our community, so we'd like to thank everyone at AWE for their support."

Philippa Kent, AWE's community engagement manager, said: "BVA do a fantastic job not only supporting charity projects directly, but also representing charities effectively and ensuring that the many people who do not have a voice are heard and taken into account.

"We are delighted that this money will go towards helping some of the most vulnerable people in our community."

Gala aims to bring back sense of community spirit to town

By Matthew Brown

A DETERMINED local woman is looking to rekindle community spirit in Winklebury and 'raise morale'.

Shirley Greer and her team are organising the Winklebury Gala this summer in memory of much-loved councillor, Lea Jeff.

Ms Jeff, who died in September last year, was a key figure in the community notably for her work in organising the carnival.

Ms Greer said that morale was low in Winklebury with the potential closing of Fort Hill School, the closure of the Budgens and uncertainty over the Manydown development.

She said: "There are so many things that are happening and we just wanted to do something more positive" she said.

"There is a community spirit there, there's a little spark that needs to made brighter.

"There used to be a carnival every year - just like Popley and all the other estates have their little event – but it stopped a couple of years ago when Lea Jeff stopped doing it and no one else picked it up and ran with it.

"We miss having that big day together where everyone meets each other and has that fun day together."

The long-time Winklebury resident was inspired to organise the July 1 event at the playing fields after realising that the community had been missing a carnival.

It will feature a parade, stalls, a big arena and a car boot sale and a plaque will be unveiled dedicated to Lea Jeff, who was also the founder of Winklebury Youth Project.

Funds raised from the gala will go towards the youth project and local charity Hazie Days that provides assistance to families who have children with special educational needs.

Shed load of skills and cash to help boost local communities

By Matthew Brown

A BASINGSTOKE shed group has dug its way to almost £1,000 in vital funding.

The group, which meets at Everest Community Academy in Popley, received a grant of £993 from the Asda Foundation.

Shed groups are places where people can come together and work on individual or community projects.

Chairman Mike Branding said: "I am so pleased that we have been awarded this generous grant by the Asda Foundation and Royal Voluntary Service.

"It will make a real difference, enabling us to buy much needed tools, replace defective heaters and install a dust extraction system and other safety equipment.

"All of these things are vital to us, especially in protecting the health of our members and the teenagers we coach from the nearby school."

Practical skill and activities are on offer and they provide opportunities for people to share tools, resources and skills in order to create learn and develop social networks.

There are now over 300 shed groups in the UK, with three a week opening on average.

Increasingly, younger people are getting involved and benefitting from the social interaction and skill sharing that a shed project provides.

Jo Phillips, sheds project manager at the RVS, said a variety of interests are catered for at these community projects:

"Most sheds are started by local groups coming together due to a shared interest in traditional crafts such as joinery, furniture renovation, metal work and mechanics," she said.

"We are delighted to administer the grant funds so that these skills can flourish in a friendly and sociable environment, and that more local community based sheds can get up an running."

Members of the Basingstoke Shed are awarded the funding from Donna Pease, Asda store manager

Have you got what it takes to be a star?

WANNABE entertainers are being invited to audition for Basingstoke's Got Talent.

Those who make it through will jump into the spotlight at this year's Basingstoke Variety Show.

"This is a call-out to local performers, especially unknown solo acts and groups, to audition to take part in this fantastic community show," said producer Ian Aherne.

"This year's show promises to be bigger and better than ever before – so if you can sing, dance, play a musical instrument, tell jokes or have any other theatrical talent, we would love to see you on the stage."

Auditions take place on Saturday at Queen Mary's College and are open to individuals and groups of all ages who live in, or are closely connected with the borough.

The Basingstoke Variety Show is being held at the Anvil on October 7 and will raise funds for the mayor's charity appeal.

Last year's show featured more than 350 performers showcasing local talent from around the borough.

Audition slots must be booked in advance by emailing thebvs@hotmail.co.uk or alternatively, an audition video can be sent to the same address.

'Tragic loss of building' as pub set to be homes

By Matthew Brown

PLANS to demolish an ancient former pub have been branded a 'shame'.

The Lamb Inn on Hackwood Road looks set to be knocked down and replaced by homes.

The pub has been derelict for the past three years and Basingstoke Heritage Society had wanted it protected.

"It's a shame really," said Debbie Reavell, secretary of the heritage society.

"I think the officers are minded to development really, there's been a damming report on the state of the building but having said that, the heritage society nominated it for the council's local list [of buildings to be preserved] at the end of September 2015 and sadly, the council's scheme to protect buildings or structures of historical or architectural interest... nothing happened about that."

It lies within the Fairfields Conservation area and the heritage society has also expressed concerns about air raid shelters in the back garden along with density issues from the proposed new housing.

The Lamb Inn as it is today and inset, in around 1875

Landmark Estates wish to replace it with five apartments, a maisonette and four semi-detached houses.

Borough councillor Gavin James, whose Eastrop ward includes the Lamb Inn, said it "was tragic to lose an old building like that".

"I'm not concerned about the loss of another pub because we've got plenty of them, it's a shame to see a traditional old building disappearing," he said.

"Whatever they do, it's got to respect the heritage of the area, it needs to look like it's supposed to be there... so it doesn't stand out like a sore thumb."

Cllr James added that most residents had resigned themselves to the fact that it will no longer be a pub.

The application was due to be discussed at a borough council meeting last night as the Observer went to press.

Patient testimonial

I have recently had both my dentures replaced by Dentalia and I would like to thank everyone for making what might have been very traumatic for me, a truly trouble free experience.

I attended several routine fittings and on the last one I was advised to try to keep them in for several hours, to see how they fit but to let them know immediately if there were any discomfort, but in any case not to leave it too long before I returned to explain any soreness or fitting issues.

That was about 6 months ago and I have never returned or contacted Dentalia since.

I have never needed to, in fact the only reason I did once feel I should contact them was to apologise for not contacting them at all since my final fitting.

I am now writing to thank Dentalia and in particular David for all the excellent work they did for me and the fantastic customer service throughout, well done.

Local mortgage advisers Michael Usher Mortgage Services based in Winchester Street, Basingstoke have some good news for the over 55s in Basingstoke and surrounding villages. They are now expanding their very successful offering of a mortgage product for homeowners that are:

- Either trapped in an "Interest Only" mortgage
- Nearing the end of their mortgage term with their existing lender and have nowhere to go, as the normal High Street lenders are trying to move these borrowers on
- Customers that have no mortgage on their homes and wish to raise some monies for home improvements, grandchildren's education or even pay for a cruise!

Michael Usher, founder and owner of the firm comments "We have been advising on these products for over 15 years and have made a lot of people very happy with our advice". He goes on to say, "for some people this wide range of products can help homeowners live in their property until they pass on or downsize, this obviously gives total peace of mind for anyone that is feeling the pressure".
The types of lenders that are offering these products are Aviva, Legal & General, LV and Just Retirement to name a few. They are all keen to lend to homeowners who have vast amounts of equity in their homes, who are aged 55 plus and wish to borrow money against their bricks & mortar.

Michael Usher Mortgage Services have the experience to look after your personal needs. They have been successfully arranging mortgages since 1987 and opened their second office in Basingstoke in May 2015. The team is based in the town at the end of the one way system which is one of the best locations in Basingstoke and is headed by founder and owner Michael Usher along with his nephew Sean Usher and Joe Capon, who both have been with the firm for over 4 years. Michael goes on to say, "I am personally committed to giving our clients a 5 Star service from start to finish, I want all prospective customers whether they are First Time Buyers or experienced borrowers to receive 100% customer satisfaction from a local business and not a call centre". If you would like to discuss your mortgage needs with one of our team then please call 01256 637000. We are sure we can help you.

Peace of mind for the future

Why a Lasting Power of Attorney gives you just that

When you write a Will, it's not for your benefit. You do it because you want to ensure that you've done your best to protect family and loved ones; to ease pressure - emotionally and financially - when you're no longer here.

Making your Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) is something you can do for yourself - it's a precaution you can take to protect your finances, health and wellbeing.

As we age the odds of illness or accident resulting in limited physical or mental capacity increases and with it the ability to make our own decisions or choices - from the food we eat to the health care we receive - is diminished or lost. But you have a voice and that voice can be legally recognised.
By making your LPA you can elect those that you trust and want to make decisions on your behalf when you are no longer able to. You can choose one or several people and include restrictions and guidelines for your Attorney(s) to follow. Legally, they are required to follow certain principles, including amongst others:
(1) the assumption that you have capacity until it is established that you don't
(2) just because you've made an unwise decision does not mean you are assumed to be unable to make your own decisions and
(3) any decisions must be made in your best interests.

Without an LPA, your loved ones will face a lengthy, stressful and costly application to the Court of Protection for an appropriate person to be named as Deputy. What's most important to note is that it is the Court's decision who is named as Deputy and this may be someone you didn't quite trust to make decisions for you or in some cases, it may be an official who doesn't know you well enough.

Michael Usher Wills & Estate Planning can help you navigate this complex application process. Our friendly and efficient service helps you make the right decisions without feeling too frustrated or stressed by forms and legal requirements. We also offer a free Will review to ensure it is up to date and will still do the things you want it to do. Appointments are available Monday to Saturday at times that suit you, either at our offices or in your home if that is more comfortable for you. Anticipating an adrenalin surge

By Josh Cox

BRILLIANT and brave comedian Stewart Lee is coming to The Anvil next month.

Stewart rose to fame in the mid-1990s with his radio duo show Lee and Herring. More success soon followed with extensive touring, further building up his following.

Stewart co-wrote and co-directed the hit mock Broadway show Jerry Springer: The Opera, along with a number of other successful TV shows.

But it was a comedian before a gig that provided his inspiration to become a comedian.

He said: "I saw a comedian called Ted Chippington opening for The Fall in Birmingham in October 1984 and it was the most exciting thing I had seen to date. I was 16 and have never looked back."

After four years writing and performing his TV show Stewart Lee's Comedy Vehicle, Content Provider is Stewart's first brand new full-length show since the award-winning Carpet Remnant World.

Stewart confessed that while he has been to The Anvil before he couldn't remember anything about it due to the "hundreds of places on every tour and many of them get jumbled up".

He said: "I seem to remember the crew are very nice and one of them gave me a good CD by his band.

"I can't really say I am excited about coming to Basingstoke as such, though there are sure to be some adrenalin surges for me during the evening's performance."

And it's the "different sounds" from an audience he enjoys the most.

Stewart added: "I suppose the best thing about performing in front of an audience is that they make a succession of different sounds which give you some indication of the relevant perceived merits of different sections of the show on that particular night."

Tickets cost £25.

The show on June 9 carries an age guide of 16 and over.

They will be playing songs from artists such as Queen, Alice Cooper, Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd and AC/DC, and are performing from 9pm.

MUSIC: Talented rhythm and blues musician Steve Brookes will be performing at The Poacher in South Warnborough tomorrow.

Sharing years of wit and wisdom

By Josh Cox

TWO legends of showbiz are bringing their London Palladium show to Basingstoke.

Des O'Connor joins Jimmy Tarbuck at The Anvil on Saturday, May 27 for an evening of great entertainment.

The two heroes of television, showbusiness and of the Royal Variety Performance will come together, accompanied by music and video, to reminisce and entertain at The Anvil for one night only.

Des is firmly established as one of Britain's most popular and best-loved entertainers.

A former chat show host and television presenter, he is also a multi-million recording selling singer releasing a total of 36 albums.

In 2012, he completed a sensational three month season in the hit West End musical Dreamboats and Petticoats and then took over the iconic role of The Wizard in the London Palladium's The Wizard of Oz.

Jimmy is an outstanding comedian; he hosted Sunday Night at the London Palladium in the early sixties and hosted numerous game and quiz shows in the 70s, 80s and 90s.

In October 2015, Des and Jimmy performed on stage together for the very first time in Sunday Night at the London Palladium which has been described as 'a night of theatrical history to be remembered for many years to come'.

Following the success of the show, Des and Jimmy are appearing at a few selected venues across the UK.

Don't miss this opportunity to see two of the best together on stage.

The much-loved legends have a combined age of over 150 and between them they have performed more times than anyone else in the history of the world famous West End venue.

Tickets are priced at £30, which includes a £2 booking fee.

Contact the Anvil Arts box office on 01256 844244 or visit anvilarts.org.uk to book your place.

Des O'Connor and Jimmy Tarbuck know more about entertainment than most will have forgotten

Showing at various times, tickets cost £14.50.

World-class music

MUSIC: The highly-decorated Moscow Philharmonic Orchestra will be performing live at The Anvil on Tuesday.

Music from Rimsky-Korsakov's shimmering fairy-tale masterpiece opens this all-Russian programme.

Tickets from £22 to £40 and a discount for under 16s and students.

Cortese's quartet

MUSIC: The Forge in Basingstoke is the host to Laura Cortese & The Dance Cards tomorrow.

The string group have a knack for playing hugely memorable gigs with their swing and rock style.

Subaru BRZ 2.0i SE Lux Auto

Nimble, frisky and a bit of a minx

By Tony Yates

IF you talk to anyone about buying a Subaru – they will automatically think you are a 'yobbo' and cast you aside thinking the only possible reason you had for buying one in the first place - was because you wanted to annoy every other road user.

And I have to admit - in a way, they do have a point, as there is a young chap who lives just round the corner from me who annoys me very much – because, he thinks owning a Subaru WRX STi means he needs to have a stereo the size of 'The Planet Earth' – and wheels that would not look out of place on a JCB.

Well I would like you to forget all about that now and instead focus on the new 2017 model Subaru BRZ – because actually this could just be the new sports car you have been yearning for.

Power and efficiency

Fitted with a 2.0 litre horizontally-opposed (Boxer), 4-cylinder, 4-stroke (DOHC 16V) petrol engine with 200ps @ 7000rpm and 205Nm of torque. 0-62mph is around 8.2sec, fuel consumption is a decent 39.8 mpg combined and a top speed of around 130mph.

Boxer engines have taken some stick in the past – but, actually they fascinate me - and the Boxer engine in the BRZ is pretty cool, thanks to key features such as the engine's square bore and stroke (86mm x 86mm), which all helps achieve a balance between mechanical efficiency, environmental performance, speed and power.

The engine is also fitted with the D-4S direct and port injection system. This selects the appropriate fuel injection rate to provide greater fuel efficiency and lower emissions.

On the road

Nimble, frisky and if I am being honest, a little minx – and that's just to get you started.

Take the nimble little BRZ out on the road and you will feel how well it grips – again thanks to the BRZ being fitted with a Torsen limited slip rear differential for improved traction, allowing the more enthusiastic driver to make the most of the car's rear-wheel drive layout.

Of course to get the best out of a sports car – you need to have a front-engined, rear-wheel drive layout – and the BRZ has this by the bucket load.

For 2017, the dampers have also been redesigned to reduce body roll, increase precision whilst cornering, which has made a massive impact on ride comfort whilst still being a dynamically focused machine.

Subaru has also lowered the strut mounts to help reduce the centre of gravity which helps give the BRZ a much sleeker and lower profile on the road.

Design & technology

Some of the additional standard equipment on the BRZ includes; Auto on headlights (LED front & LED rear) 6.2" multifunction colour touchscreen, satellite navigation, 17" alloy wheels, heated front seats, dual-zone automatic air-conditioning, cruise control, ABS, brake assist, front, side, curtain and knee airbags.

• Is this Subaru the sports car you have been yearning for?

To sum up

What can I say – the BRZ is a great drive and perfect for someone who wants a nimble little sports car.

THIS WEEK: WIN @ TICKETS TO BAT OUT OF HELL - THE MUSICAL!

Where there's a Will, there's a way to hit a second victory

By Matthew Brown

BASINGSTOKE & North Hants Cricket Club made it two league wins from two as they beat Calmore Sports by 53 runs.

The Bountymen were on home soil and after winning the toss and electing to bat, they were grateful to middle order batsman Will Phillips (79) and player/coach David Griffiths (71) to reach 241 for eight from their 50 overs.

Without these invaluable contributions, Basingstoke would have struggled to reach a competitive total.

Basingstoke batsmen struggled to get going after opener Joe Oates was bowled by Steve Wright for one and Daniel Belcher caught by Paul Proudley also off the bowling of Wright.

Only Christopher Oliver's 32 from 73 balls provided resistance before Phillips and Griffiths chipped in with their useful cameos.

Sports were on the back foot right from the off with Basingstoke captain Mitch Stokes bowling opposite number Mark Lavelle for a golden duck.

With wickets falling at regular intervals Calmore struggled to put a stable partnership together.

Ben Johns scored an impressive century off 140 balls but this was in vain and number nine batsman Liam Newton (39 not out from 65 balls) was the only other scorer of note.

Stokes finished as pick of the bowlers, ending with figures of three wickets for 28 runs as Calmore finished on 188-8, leaving them 53 runs short.

■ Hook & Newnham Basics CC lost out to Liphook by 12 runs in a close game.

Rupert Armstrong's 4-36 and Kevin Poulter's 3-32 meant Liphook were all out for 191.

Contributions from Ben Thane (52), Jordan Hobday (31), Matt Love (27) and Josh Buckingham (27) got Hook close but they were restricted by George Neave's 5-43, leaving them all out for 179.

■ Hartley Wintney went down to St Cross Symondians 2nd XI by two wickets despite Henry Collier impressing with both bat and ball.

Collier top scored with 62 from 76 balls as Hartley Wintney scored 226.

His 5-34 was ultimately in vain though as St Cross battled hard to hold out for the victory.

Changes force Bison to bid farewell to Tomas and Rene

BASINGSTOKE Bison title winners Tomas Hiadlovsky and Rene Jarolin will not be returning to the Herd next season.

The formidable Slovakian duo from the successful 2015/16 season made significant contributions to the club in the last two seasons.

"With the changes in the league structure this summer, we knew there were going to have to be some decisions to be taken that we did not want to make," said Doug Sheppard, director of hockey.

"Sadly, for us and our fan base, these include the departure of Tomas and Rene.

"Both of them were great servants to our team and helped create some successful memories for our club.

"On behalf of everyone associated with the Bison organisation, I would like to thank them for their contributions and wish them all the greatest of success moving forward."

Netminder Hiadlovsky made 91 appearances after joining the club from Edinburgh at the start of the 2015/16 season and his six league shut-outs left him just one shy of the club record.

Fan's player of the year last season Jarolin scored 51 goals in a points haul of 116 during 96 appearances for Bison.

Rose's woes on final day at Players take him to eight over par

A DISASTROUS final round of 80 saw north Hampshire golfer Justin Rose drop all the way down to finish in a tie for 65th at the Players Championship over the weekend.

He finished on eight over par, with only three players who made the cut ending up below him on the table.

Rose had been having a steady tournament up until then, and was on level par after Saturday following rounds of 74, 71 and 71.

But after an uncharacteristically bad round on Sunday, he fell 40 places down the field.

The damage was done on two holes in particular, as he picked up ugly triple bogeys on the 10th and 17th.

That was backed up with three bogeys on the front nine and another on the 12th, with just two birdies to show for his efforts.

South Korea's Si Woo Kim was the eventual winner of the tournament on 10 under par, three shots ahead of Louis Oosthuizen and a resurgent Ian Poulter, who were tied for second.

Ladies draw

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies picked up a point from their visit to Brislington Ladies on Sunday.

The match ended 2-2, with Helen Ogle and Katie Randell getting the goals for Stoke.

It leaves them eighth in the South West Division 1 standings with 20 points, three points behind Maidenhead United with one game left.

Their final game of the season is at home to second-placed Plymouth Argyle Ladies this Sunday.

Oulton trip

MOTORSPORT: Rob Collard will look to build on his win last time out at Thruxton when the British Touring Car Championship returns to Oulton Park in Cheshire this weekend.

The north Hampshire racer is fourth in the standings with 103 points after a solid start to the season, which has seen him gain three podiums.

Collard said: "Oulton has usually been a very good circuit for rear wheel drive cars and I'm aiming to take advantage of that this weekend."

Bison triumph

ICE HOCKEY: Basingstoke Bison Ladies picked up a second win in a row as they beat Oxford City Midnight Stars 3-1 on Sunday evening.

Jodie Attrill scored twice while Peri Edmiston added another to move Bison back up to third in the Women's National South Division 1 table, following Streatham Storm's win the previous night.

It's more of the same as they face Stars again this Sunday, before hosting Streatham in their last match on May 28.

ADAC return

MOTORSPORT: After his impressive start to the series, Ricky Collard will be seeking a repeat performance in round two of the ADAC Masters this weekend.

The field heads to the Lausitzring in Germany for two races on Saturday and Sunday, with Collard topping the standings.

Fans' joy as club set to stay at the Camrose – for now

By Matthew Brown

BASINGSTOKE Town fans were "rejoicing" after the club announced it will "continue to play its home games at the Camrose".

It had been feared the club would need to relocate as plans were revealed by outgoing chairman Rafi Razzak to sell off the ground in order to pay off money he invested in the club.

A groundshare with Farnborough had been considered, but the club confirmed it will be remaining in Basingstoke for the time being.

In a statement on the club's official website, chief executive David Knight said: "While much work still has to be done, I am pleased to announce the club will continue to play at the Camrose.

"We were seeking clarification from and had discussions with the borough council.

"Following this, we evaluated what was best for the club and took the decision to stay at the Camrose."

He added: "The club wishes to place on record its thanks to Farnborough for their kind offer of a groundshare for next season, and we appreciate their patience and support during the last few weeks."

While the fans were delighted, there was also some caution from them.

"It's brilliant, brilliant news," said Simon Hood, organiser of Keep Football in Basingstoke.

"Hopefully it gives us 12 months to try and find a new solution rather than us being rushed out of the ground and being left homeless.

"There was a lot of rejoicing last week when it was announced, I think a lot of people had thought the worst because of the silence from the club and everyone thought the move was going to happen."

Martin French, chairman of the supporters' club, was "not totally happy because if you actually read the statement, it's only saying we're (BTFC) going to continue to play at the Camrose, it doesn't say how long".

He reiterated a wish for a supporters' community scheme that would see fans, businesses and the local community all have a stake in the club.

But this came with a warning that they would have to bridge the money that Mr Razzak has given to the club and attendances "won't necessarily do it so fundraising activities and where we are going to play are important" as well as recruiting volunteers.

The club have organised a supporters' forum meeting on May 23, starting at 7pm in the clubhouse.

Howzat for a start to the season

IT was two wins out of two for Basingstoke and North Hants Cricket Club as they beat Calmore Sports by 53 runs on Saturday.

Basingstoke set their opponents a target of 241-8 to chase down, but Calmore could only get to 188-8 in reply after their 50 overs.

The result comes after Basingstoke had won their first match of the season against Ventnor last week. It puts them top of the Southern Premier Cricket League Division 1 at this early stage.
